Dubuar-Hyland.

Autumn leaves, ferns and golden rod formed an attractive setting for the wedding of Miss Meda Virginia Hyland, daughter of Mrs. Fannie B. Hyland, and Mr. Paul S. Dubuar of Seattle, Wash., which took place quietly at noon yesterday, at the home of the bride's mother, 104 V street northwest.
Miss Hyland's father was the late Dr. Henry A. Hyland, and she is the granddaughter of the late Rev. William L. Hyland, D. D., of the diocese of Washington, D. C.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. R. Stetson, D. D., of St. Mark's Church, this city, and Miss Margaret Brickman of Baltimore, Md., played the wedding music.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Henry A. Hyland of Johnson City, Tenn., wore a gown of old rose tulle trimmed with cream lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.
Miss Elizabeth Moore, the maid of honor, was the only attendant. She wore a gown of old rose tulle trimmed with cream lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.
The guests present included only the immediate family and a few most intimate friends.
Following the ceremony there was a breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Dubuar left for their wedding trip to Philadelphia, New York city and Niagara Falls. They will also visit Mr. Dubuar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dubuar, in Michigan. The bride's traveling costume was a modish tailored suit of dark blue cloth, with which she wore a small black velvet hat.
After December 1 they will be at home at 909 35th avenue, Seattle, Wash.

Four Generations Celebrate.

Mrs. Daniel Smith Gordon, sr., of Fairfax county, Va., and Washington, D. C., celebrated her eighty-third birthday anniversary Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Sheppard, 1845 Irving street, surrounded by quite a company, mostly her descendants representing four generations. Mrs. Gordon is one of a vanishing type of women of the south of repose and a "duty-faithfully-performed class."
Among those present were Mrs. George A. Gordon and Miss Alice Gertrude Gordon of Fairfax, Va.; Miss Amanda B. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith Gordon, Jr.; Miss Virginia Fairfax Gordon, Mr. Kenneth Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gordon, Mr. Durand Gordon, Miss Natalie Gordon, Mr. Fulton R. Gordon, Mr. James Howell Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Ray T. Bailey, Miss Grace Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bailey, Mr. Dean Bailey, Mr. Wilson Bailey, Mrs. H. U. Bailey, Misses Anna Thorens and Margaret Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, sr.; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Maddox, Misses Madox of Charles county, Md.; Mrs. George R. Hill, Mr. Robert Jones and Miss Collins Jones of Alexandria, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bailey, Rev. H. E. Brundage, Mr. and Mrs. George Reeves of Fairfax county, Va., and others.

Buchanan-Niedfeldt.

Miss Sadie Evelyn Niedfeldt and Mr. W. Gordon Buchanan of Mobile, Ala., were married yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the rectory of St. Patrick's Church, Rev. Father J. A. Smyth officiating. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, with an overskirt of accordion-pleated chiffon. The bodice, of white tulle, was finished with a soft giraffe of satin. She wore a white tulle hat and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.
Miss Jessie Reese was the maid of honor, and her gown was of gold-colored crepe de chine veiled in pink tulle, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.
Mr. John Parks of Syracuse, N. Y., acted as best man.
Mrs. Richard Pairo entertained the wedding party at a luncheon following the ceremony.
Miss Buchanan left later for an extended trip through West Virginia. They will be at home, after October 20, at 1104 Vermont avenue.

Turner-Billsborough.

An interesting wedding took place at noon yesterday, when Miss Margaret Hillsborough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hillsborough, became the bride of Mr. L. R. Turner of this city. The ceremony was performed at the home of the Rev. Mr. Briggs of the Fifth Baptist Church.
Miss Irene Hillsborough was the bride's only attendant, and Mr. Newbold acted as best man.
Mr. and Mrs. Turner left for Philadelphia. From there they will go to Niagara Falls for a stay of several weeks.

Rust-Anderson.

A wedding of interest to Washington society took place at noon yesterday, when Miss Mildred Anderson of New York and Washington became the bride of Harry Lee Rust, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Rust of this city. The home of Mrs. Alfred John Boulton, aunt of the bride, in Brookland, was the scene of the ceremony and of the wedding breakfast, which followed at 1 o'clock.
Miss Elise Sage was the bride's only attendant, and Gwynn Rust was best man for his brother. After their wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Rust will make their home at Beverly Court in this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Rust went to Brooklyn Friday to be present at their son's marriage.
Shower for Autumn Bride.
A surprise miscellaneous shower was given Monday evening, October 2, by Mrs. Arthur Sargent at her home, 1032 Irving street northeast, Brookland, D. C., in compliment to her sister, Miss Miriam Simons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Simons of this city, whose marriage to Mr. James Knox of South Carolina will be an event of the late autumn.
Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride-elect and later in the evening, a buffet supper was served. Those present were Mrs. E. F. Simons, Mrs. Sadie Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boucher, Mrs. Martin McHugh of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Charles Reif, Mrs. William Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Simons, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Rust of this city, and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Steverton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Tansill, Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Sargent, Miss Mary Hollidge, Miss Elsie Sargent and Messrs. Edwin Mearns and Arthur and Henry Regent.

Hereford-Bullard.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Richardson Bullard, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bullard of Bowling Green, Va., and Mr. John D. Hereford of this city took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Bowling Green.
The wedding was very quiet, owing to the recent serious illness of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. S. S. Richardson of this city.
Rev. Edgar Hill of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Bowling Green performed the ceremony, at 7:30 o'clock. In the presence of the members of the two families and the former classmates of Miss Bullard at Blackstone Female College.
Miss Margaret Smoot sang a solo before the ceremony, and she together with Miss Emily Overton, Miss Nadine Hoskins and Miss Richardson, all wearing white gowns, attended the bride.
Miss Mary Elliott played the wedding march.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dark blue zabardine traveling suit, with a blue beaver hat to match and gray gloves, and a gray ostrich feather boa. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.
Mrs. Bullard wore mauve crepe de chine and point lace, and the Misses Katharine and Lena Bullard wore lingerie dresses with blue sashes.
Mr. Reginald Hereford acted as best man.
The out-of-town guests present included Mrs. Reginald Hereford of Linden, Va.; Miss Sarah Bullard of Lynchburg, Va.; and Mr. Robert W. Richardson of Washington.
After a northern trip Mr. and Mrs. Hereford will reside in this city.

Engagements.
